Baccarat Hotel & Residences new York

new York's new address du jour

BY SARAH HEDLEY HYMER

Hot Hotel

French crystal company Baccarat has announced the launch of a sparkling new hotel in New York. Due to open in 2014, Baccarat Hotel & Residences New York, located just off Fifth Avenue on 53rd Street, is directly opposite NY's ever popular MoMa (Museum of Modern Art). The 114-room global flagship hotel, operated by the luxurious Starwood hotel group, boasts a standalone crystal bar surrounded by an outdoor Tuileries-style terrace, and a bar-restaurant for Manhattan's discerning diners.

Housed within a rather striking 50-storey glass tower, the hotel shares a zip code with Baccarat's 61 private glass residences (now for sale), including four full-floor units and one five-bedroom penthouse duplex with an outdoor terrace for money-no-object sorts. The residences will have a private entrance and floor-to-ceiling windows, as well as a Baccarat chandelier as a signature feature in the foyer of each residence. Frankly, we wouldn't expect anything less. INFO: With prices ranging from $3.5 million to $60 million, Baccarat Residences are now available to buy. Want to put in an offer they can't refuse?
